Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

1. Claims 1-17,27,28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Perez et al (6487959) in view of Chester (3047257).

Perez et al shows the details of the adjustment of an aircraft wing with the swivelable chambers except that the tubes are arranged along the joints in segments of the skin and not between the stiffening elements 76a 76 76b. Chester shows that in a similar joint in a wing there is a pivot 18 and stiffening members 16 and 17 and the tube 19 is placed between the stiffening members and leaves the joint between 12 and 24 smoother and less drag.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to place the tubes of Perez et al between the stiffening elements as taught by Chester.

2. Claims 18-19,24-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Perez et al in view of Chester as applied in paragraph above, and further in view of McAnally (4349169).

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use two tubes in place of one as taught by figure 2 of McAnally in the device of Perez et al since it provides more control.

Art Unit: 3644

3. Claims 20-22,23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Perez et al in view of Chester as applied in paragraph above, and further in view of Fisher (3785567).

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to substitute the actuator of Fisher for that of the above combination as it is an equivalent device.

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 20-22,23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is not seen how the device of these claims which bring in levers and how this is related to that of the independent claim with the stiffening members.

Applicant's remarks have been considered but are deemed persuasive. It is noted that there are only claims 1-28 there is no claim 33. Claims 18-19,24-26 were rejected at the top of page 3 of the office action. Chester shows the arrangement of placing the actuator between the stiffening members and not adding additional stiffening members to the skin.

1. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Galen L Barefoot whose telephone number is 571-272-6898.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Teri Luu can be reached on 571-272-7045.

On July 15, 2005, the Central FAX Number will change to 571-273-8300. This new Central FAX Number is the result of relocating the Central FAX server to the Office's Alexandria, Virginia campus.

Most facsimile-transmitted patent application related correspondence is required to be sent to the Central FAX Number. To give customers time to adjust to the new Central FAX Number, faxes sent to the old number (703-872-9306) will be routed to the new number until September 15, 2005. After September 15, 2005, the old number will no longer be in service and 571-273-8300 will be the only facsimile number recognized for "centralized delivery".

CENTRALIZED DELIVERY POLICY: For patent related correspondence, hand carry deliveries must be made to the Customer Service Window (now located at the Randolph Building, 401 Dulany Street, Alexandria, VA 22314), and facsimile transmissions must be sent to the Central FAX number, unless an exception applies. For example, if the examiner has rejected claims in a regular U.S. patent application, and the reply to the examiner's Office action is desired to be transmitted by facsimile rather than mailed, the reply must be sent to the Central FAX Number.

Any inquiry of a general nature or relating to the status of this application or proceedings should be directed to 800-786-9199.

Information regarding the status of an application may also be obtained from the Patent Application information Retrieval (PAIR) system.
